INTRODUCTION

The Department of Correctional Services admitted 15,569 offenders into facility custody during calendar year 1985. The major portion (79.8%) of these offenders were court commitments who had been convicted of felonies and sentenced to indeterminate terms of imprisonment. This report presents descriptive data on a variety of attributes describing the characteristics of this group of offenders.

The variables covered in this report include: gender; ethnic group; crime; region; predicate (second) felony status; felony class; minimum sentence; maximum sentence; education; marital status; and county of commitment by crime. Charts showing the percent distributions of the variables are presented along with tabulations of the variable by age on commitment.

In addition to the material on 1985 court commitments a breakdown of the other 1985 admission categories is provided. Also, the number of admissions by type and releases by type are shown for each calendar year covering the period 1976-1985.

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Correctional Services admitted 19,129 offenders into facility custody during calendar year 1986. The major portion (14,934 or 78.1%) of these offenders were court commitments who had been convicted of felonies and sentenced to indeterminate terms of imprisonment. This report presents descriptive data on a variety of attributes describing the characteristics of this group of offenders.

The variables covered in this report include: gender; ethnic group; crime; region; predicate (second) felony status; felony class; minimum sentence; maximum sentence; education; marital status; and county of commitment. Charts showing the percent distributions of the variables are presented along with tabulations of the variable by age on commitment.

In addition to the material on 1985 court commitments a breakdown of the other 1985 admission categories is provided. Also, the number of admissions by type and releases by type are shown for each calendar year covering the period 1976-1985.

HIGHLIGHTS

1. In 1986 DOCS admitted 19,129 offenders to custody. This represents an all time high in admissions to DOCS, 23% greater than the previous high figure. The largest group of admissions were court commitments (78.1% or 14,934).

2. Of these commitments 95.2% were males and 4.8% females. The median age on admission for males was 26.7 years and 29.3 years for females.

3. Forty-eight percent (48.4%) of the commitments were in the black ethnic group; 30.6% Hispanic; 20.6% white; and 0.4% other.

4. Over half (52.0%) were committed for violent felony offenses and another 6.0% were committed for coercive/violent offenses. Property crimes accounted for 18.4% while drugs accounted for 21.6% of commitments. Youthful Offenders made up the remaining 2.0% of commitments.

5. More than two out of three (71.7%) commitments came from New York City. An additional 11.5% came from Suburban NYC areas while 16.8% came from Upstate.

6. Nearly half (45.6%) of the commitments were sentenced as second felony or persistent felony offenders.

7. Class D felonies accounted for 30.9% of all commitments, the largest felony class. Class B was next at 22.6% followed by Class C at 21.9%; Class E at 16.1%; Class A at 6.5%; and Youthful Offenders at 2.0%.

8. The median minimum sentence was 29.0 months while the median maximum sentence was 59.5 months.

9. The average inmate had a partial high school education.

10. Over half (56.5%) of the commitments had never been married while 19.3% were married at time of commitment. A slightly smaller portion (15.4%) had a "common law" relationship while the remainder were separated, divorced or widowed.

INTRODUCTION

This report provides preliminary data on offenders released to parole supervision from facilities of the New York State Department of Correctional Services during calendar year 1984. Only first released are included. For each of eleven characteristics the amount of time served is shown. Time served is broken down into two groups. One includes only the time served in Department of Correctional Services custody. The other group includes jail time in addition to the time served in DOCS custody. The computer file from which these data were obtained will be subjected to an audit process designed to correct inconsistencies and complete any missing data. After this audit has been completed, a final report, Characteristics Of Inmates Discharged - 1984, will be prepared. This report will examine the various characteristics in detail and compare them to findings for previous years.

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Correctional Services (DOCS) released 13,966 offenders from facility custody during calendar year 1985. A major portion (9,901 or 70.9%) were released to parole supervision for the first time since their date of commitment to DOCS. This report presents descriptive data on a variety of attributes describing the characteristics of this group of offenders as well as data on the amount of time served in penal facilities.

The variables covered in this report include: gender; ethnic group; region; age on release; felony class; first/second felony sentence status; prior education; prior occupation; minimum sentence; maximum sentence; commitment offense; and median time served by crime. Charts showing the percent distributions of the variables are presented along with crosstabulations by time served in DOCS custody. Tables showing combined DOCS time plus local jail time are also included for selected variables.

In addition to the material on 1985 first releases a breakdown of the other 1985 release categories is provided. Also, the number of admissions by type and releases by type are shown for each calendar year covering the period 1976-1985.

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Correctional Services (DOCS) released 15,195 offenders from facility custody during calendar year 1986. A major portion (10,389 or 68.4%) were released to parole supervision for the first time since their date of commitment to DOCS. This report presents descriptive data on a variety of attributes describing the characteristics of this group of offenders as well as data on the amount of time served in penal facilities.

The variables covered in this report include: gender; ethnic group; region; age on release; felony class; first/second felony sentence status; prior education; prior occupation; minimum sentence; maximum sentence; commitment offense; and median time served by crime. Charts showing the percent distributions of the variables are presented along with crosstabulations by time served in DOCS custody. Tables showing combined DOCS time plus local jail time are also included for selected variables.

In addition to the material on 1986 first releases a breakdown of the other 1986 release categories is provided.
